HEROES AND HEROINES IN BRITAIN

Our sixth graders prepared some information about heroes and heroines in Britain. We encourage you to read about them in our school hall. There are some sneak peeks below☺. Worth paying attention is work made by Kacper J. about Joseph Mallord William Turner known as J. M. W. Turner and contemporarily as William Turner, who was an English Romantic painter, printmaker and watercolourist, known for his expressive colourisation, imaginative landscapes and turbulent, often violent marine paintings. Kacper put a huge effort to make his project, it is so complicated, that we couldn't take a picture of it.

CHARLES DICKENS

Charles John Huffam Dickens was an English writer and social critic. He created some of the world's best loved fictional characters and is considered to be the greatest novelist of the Victorian era. His works inspired unprecedented popularity during his lifetime, and by the 21st century, critics and scholars had recognized him as a literary genius. His reads and short stories enjoy lasting popularity.

Born in Portsmouth, Dickens left school at 12 and was factory work. His father was incarcerated in debtors prison. Despite poor lack of formal education, he wrote a witty, pointed first 20 years, wrote 15 novels, 5 major novellas, and short stories, and was fiction, lectures, lectured and performed readings extensively, and an indefatigable letter writer, and composed vigorously for children's magazines, and other social reforms.

Dickens's literary career began with 1836 serial publication of the magazine Pickwick Papers. A few years on, and became an international literary success. Famous for his humor, satire, and keen observation of character, and society. His novels were published in weekly or weekly instalments, pioneered the serial publication of narrative fiction, which became the dominant Victorian mode for novel publication. Dickens's feelings in his novel publications kept readers in suspense. The Victorian novel allowed Dickens to dramatize his audience's reaction, and often reaching his plot and character development based on such feedback. For example, when asked the public expressed interest in the way Pickwick in London, corresponded, changed to reflect his audience's reaction. Inspired the character and plotline features his plot, some completely unrelated, and he often drew elements from current events into his narrative. Dickens of the Victorian poor, suffered in his novels in his early, and working-class, need to recognize it, and requiring a new class of

LORD ASHTON

Lord Ashton or James Williamson was a British businessman, philanthropist and politician. He was born in 1842 and died in 1930 at age 87. He was a very rich businessman in Lancaster, UK, where he owned few large factories. His family business produced calico and linoleum which was exported around the world. He was dedicated to charity, built few buildings & gardens in Lancaster or for example served free breakfast for poor people. He was married 3 times and had 2 daughters.

Boudicca

She was born in 22 and she died in 61. Her name means "Victory". Her husband was Prasutagus. She had two daughters. She was the queen of the Iceni. She is considered a British folk hero.

Boudicca was gold necklace and multi-colored tunic. On this coat with a brooch. When she appealed to people she held a spear.

We also talked about Queen Victoria, John Lennon and William Shakespeare©. It is believed that there are dozens of ways to write Shakespeare's surname: the spelling of William Shakespeare's name has varied over time. It was not consistently spelled any single way during his lifetime, in manuscript or in printed form. After his death the name was spelled variously by editors of his work, and the spelling was not fixed until well into the 20th century.

The standard spelling of the surname as "Shakespeare" was the most common published form in Shakespeare's lifetime, but it was not one used in his own handwritten signatures.

There are six surviving signatures written by Shakespeare himself. The signatures appear as follows:

Willm Shakp

William Shaksper

Wm Shakspe

William Shakspere

Holidays are coming soon☺

The Holidays are just around the corner☺. Below you can find the emails our students wrote about their last holidays. Some of them are pretty inspiring☺.

Dear John,

Everything is fine, I'm at home now and I'm resting on the couch. I went to the cinema with Martin yesterday. Because this letter may fall into the wrong hands, unfortunately I can't tell you the title of the movie. I hope that the next days will be even better.

Maciek

P.S. I won't go to the party, because I have just called the "Extreme Team" – I'm going to do a bungee jump next week. Sorry John, but you can't be better than me☺.

M.

Hi John,

How are you? This is my fourth day at the windsurfing camp. It is great! I've met a lot of cool people. But you won't believe my story! Listen carefully!

The weather was beautiful yesterday. All of us went to the lake, because we had the lesson with our coach. I took my equipment and I started sailing. At some point, when I was in the middle of the lake, my sail unbuckled and flown into the water. It happened because the wind changed its direction. I had to wait for my coach to help me. It was scary, but funny at the same time☺. I will send you a postcard.

Iga

P.S. Yes, I'm going to Dave's party. How about you?

Hi John,

Your camp is fantastic! I'm going to the camp, too. My camp's name is "Sport is you". That is very cool. We play football, handball, basketball, tennis and lots of volleyball and other games. Me and my friends are very happy, because we all love sports☺.

Sophie

I also have invitation from Dave and I want to go to his party. What about your plans?

S.

Hi John,

I'm happy that you are doing well. I've been on the summer camp too. I have ridden a horse named Lucy, I have sailed a boat on the sea, I have played with dolphins named Oscar, Mimi and Sily. I have been in a room with our friend Layla. Answering your question about the party next Saturday: I'm coming!

See you there,

Marta

EDUALNG'S EARTH DAY

Our youngest students celebrated THE EARTH DAY in April. This is what they learned and what they created. Put your hands together for their creativity and hard work☺.

MOVIE CLUB REVIEW

Catch Me If You Can is a 2002 American biographical crime film directed and co-produced by Steven Spielberg from a screenplay by Jeff Nathanson. The film is based on the life of Frank Abagnale, who, before his 19th birthday, successfully performed cons worth millions of dollars by posing as a Pan Am pilot, a doctor, and a legal prosecutor.

The film stars Leonardo DiCaprio and Tom Hanks, with Christopher Walken, Martin Sheen, and Nathalie Baye in supporting roles.

Development for the film started in 1980 but did not progress until 1997, when the film rights to Abagnale's book were sold to Spielberg's DreamWorks. The film was a financial and critical success, and was received positively by both critics and Abagnale.
